A HISTORY OF MODERN IRAN - Cambridge University Press

Iran enjoys one of the richest historical lineages of any modern state stretching back several thousand years. This history can be broadly divided into three epochs: the pre-Islamic ancient period (c559 BC to 651 AD); the Islamic era (651 AD to 1800 AD); and the modern era, defined by its encounter with Western modernity from around 1800.

So writes Ervand Abrahamian in the introduction of his A History of Modern Iran. (Second edition) His focus is on the modernization of Iran in the last century, which he argues was made possible by the expansion of the state, underpinned by oil revenues. All this seemed highly unlikely during the first two decades of the 20th Century.
